FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Mail Fraud, in violation of 18 USC 1341, 1346, 2, as charged in Counts 5 through 9, and 16 through 20; Money Laundering, in violation of 18 USC 1956(a)(1)(A)(I), 2, as charged in Counts 26 through 29; and False Declarations before Grand Jury, in violation of 18 USC 1623, as charged in Count 32 of the First Superseding Indictment

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $1,500, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $714,455.06 to victims set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least $25.00 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered;

Pursuant to 18 USC 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 USC 3612(g).

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendants Paul H. Richards, David N. Smith and Bevan Atlee Thomas, for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Paula Harris, is hereby committed on Counts 5 through 9, 16 through 20, 26 through 29, and 32 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 66 months.

This term consists of 66 months on each of Counts 5 through 9, 16 through 20, and 26 through 29, and 60 months on Count 32 of the First Superseding Indictment, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 5 through 9, 16 through 20, 26 through 29, and 32, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. Neither the defendant nor any entities in which the defendant has a financial control or interest shall enter into a contract with any public entity without the written permission of the Probation Officer; and
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of substance abuse.

Defendant is advised of her right to appeal.

Counsel for the government motions the Court to dismiss the underlying indictment. Motion granted.

Defendant is remanded forthwith to the custody of the United States Marshal. Remand Order 17740 issued.

After the conclusion of the proceedings, the Court orders defendant's bond exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
